

Miller & Rhoads

To-Day and Friday

"Fall Fashion Week"

PRESENTING

Autumn's Newest Dress Goods Dress Silks and Velvets

BLACKS, COLORS, FANCIES, in a Variety More Extensive and Beautiful Than We've Ever Before Shown.

Every woman interested in Autumn Fashions in Dress Fabrics should visit Miller & Rhoads this week. We are showing absolutely the newest and most correct fabrics in the very latest colorings for both street and evening wear.

Broadcloths, Garbardines, Poplins, French Serges, Crepes, Roman Stripes and Plaids.

Black Chiffon Velvets, Costume Velvets, Millinery Velvets, Panné Velvets, Black Crepe Satins, Satin Duchess, Satin Messalines, Crepe de Chines, Evening Silks, Satins, Etc.

New Fall and Winter Dress Trimmings

From France, Germany and Switzerland.

Miller & Rhoads Dress Trimming Department has always had the reputation of showing the very latest novelties to their customers, who have learned through years of satisfaction to expect to find the newest and best here at moderate prices. This season, as usual, we will lead, as our import orders were placed before the war started.

We are now showing some wonderfully attractive trimmings for street and evening gowns, which have just arrived from Europe.

Spangled Bands and Demi-Flouncings.
Bead Trimmings, in beautiful colored effects.
Pearl Trimmings.
Rosebud Trimmings.
Colored Embroidered Trimmings.
Tinselled Bands and Edges.
Tinselled Silk Materials for vestings.
Gold and Silver Cloths and Nets.

Jet Bands, Edges and Flouncings.
Black and Colored Braids.
The Most Fashionable Fur Trimmings.

NEW BUTTONS

Buttons in all the newest shapes and in novel designs of jet, crochet, metal, crystal and composition.

First Floor.

Prominent During "Fashion Week" and intensely interesting to all admirers of correct styles

ARE THE

Fascinating Frocks for Dancing and Evening!

The New Blouses!

Fall Millinery!

Smart Dinner-Dresses!

New Neckwear and Gloves!

Tailored Suits and Wraps!

The New Footwear!

Never before were foreign fashion influences and American skill in designing so extensively and so happily combined. It is a chance, such as one seldom has, to witness what style wonders American genius can produce. COME AND SEE IT TO-DAY.

MILLER & RHOADS.

SKETCHES FROM LIFE - By Temple

"Him Finna Da Boss!"

GOVERNOR LEAVES TO-DAY FOR FAIR AT GLOUCESTER

Many Appointments on Executive's
Carpl Call Him Hither and Thither Over State.

While Repairs Are Being Made
Stuart Will Make Home on West
Franklin Street, Which Is Now Being Furnished.

Turned out of his domicile in the Capitol Square, Governor Henry C. Stuart is moving about the State at a lively clip this week. The many appointments on the Governor's card, calling him hither and thither, come at an opportune time. He has no vine and daffodil of his own in Richmond just now, for the dismantling of the Executive Mansion is just begun, and the furnishing of the temporary executive residence, 921 West Franklin Street, is yet to be completed. The Governor had no official or formal engagements from last Saturday night until to-day, which gave him opportunity to enjoy a stay of several days in his Elk Garden manse and look over his stock farm in Russell County. He had planned to attend the cotton conference at Atlanta, in which the Governors of the cotton-growing States were to meet this week, and he contemplated going direct from Russell County to Atlanta. The place of meeting, however, has been changed. The Governor will assemble in Washington, D. C. instead of at the Georgia metropolis.

WILL SPEND TO-DAY

Thus it happens that the Gloucester County Fair will be greeted by the presence of the chief executive officer of Virginia to-day. The fair managers were advised yesterday that Governor Stuart had rearranged his itinerary so as to spend a day in Gloucester. Commissioner of Agriculture George W. Kolner will also be there.

The Governor will be met at Williamsburg by an automobile party on his arrival there this morning. He will connect with the Richmond-bound train of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway in the afternoon, and will occupy the West Franklin Street residence to-night.

Governor Stuart's county fair appointments include a visit to the Fauquier County Fair and the Mecklenburg County Fair, at Chase City. At the latter place he will meet the Governor of North Carolina and his staff and deliver an address.

The Executive Mansion in the Capitol Square, divested of its furnishings, was turned over yesterday to the building contractors, who are to make extensive repairs to the old building. The Executive Mansion will be ready for re-occupancy by Governor Stuart before Christmas.

Examinations Next Month.
The quarterly examinations of applicants for the session of 1914-1915 has, in Virginia, will be held in Richmond October 20 by the State Board of Pharmacy. The list of applicants will close October 10. Notice of the meeting of the board has been given to the members by Secretary E. L. Brandis.

Marriage Licenses.
Licenses to marry were issued yesterday by Deputy Clerk Breeden, of the Circuit Court, to Howard L. Seaton and Sallie E. Knight; Leonard L. Dandridge and Emma Hudson, and Joseph W. George and Katharine O. Sergeant.

MANY DISCIPLES HERE FOR STATE CONVENTION

Thirty-Ninth Session of Churches and Sunday Schools Brings 300 Delegates.

Opening Address Made in Hanover
Avenue Christian Church by Rev.
E. B. Kemm, of Martinsville—Ministerial Association Meeting.

With a large congregation, including 300 or more delegates representing practically every section of the State, in attendance, the opening session of the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Churches and Sunday Schools of the Disciples of Christ in Virginia was held last night at Hanover Avenue Christian Church. Rev. E. B. Kemm, of Martinsville, made the opening address. Rev. Gerald Culbertson, pastor of the Third Christian Church, of Richmond, conducted the devotional exercises, and Rev. George W. Kemper, pastor of the Hanover Avenue Christian Church, presided over the meeting. The music of the convention is in charge of W. E. M. Hackleman, of Indianapolis.

In his address Mr. Kemm referred to a professional beggar from a Northern city called at Police Headquarters and requested that a permit be granted him to ask alms on the street.

"We don't grant such permits," he was informed, "and we advise you to go at once, under pain of being arrested." The man waited not upon the order of his going, but immediately went.

Well, there are about a dozen half-crazed and blind men who, the police pass by without molestation. They have kept to their self-assigned positions so long that they are regarded almost as landmarks, and it is seldom that they are disturbed.

A meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions was held at Hanover Avenue Christian Church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when various plans of the board were discussed and work for the ensuing year was planned. Speeches were made by women prominent in mission work in several churches of different denomination.

Among those who addressed the meeting were: Mrs. E. E. Osgood, of the Episcopal Church, Richmond; Mrs. J. P. Thomas, of the Baptist Church, Richmond; Mrs. R. E. Michaels, of the Methodist Church; Mrs. J. J. Scherer, of the Lutheran Church; Miss Anna Grafton, of the national mission board, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss Etta Nunn, corresponding secretary of the board, of North Carolina. Gratifying reports were submitted by members of the board.

State officers of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions are as follows: president, Miss Ellen Kent; vice-president, Mrs. J. L. Neale; secretary, Miss Gilly Cary; treasurer, Miss Lillie Pearce; State missionary, Mrs. George W. Oliver; superintendent of young people's work, Mrs. F. W. Long; superintendent of young women's mission circles, Miss Inez Fox.

Sessions of the convention will continue until Sunday evening, and it is expected that other delegates will arrive to-day.

A Career Begun

The business career of a young man should begin when he draws his first check on the bank. His affairs assume a new importance to him, and he is more careful of business and ability takes root, and from that day on such a man is worth more to himself, to his employer, and to his business. It develops the true spirit of THRIFT, the foundation of SUCCESS. The account of the young are especially welcomed.

The American National Bank,

OF RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

Capital and Surplus,	$1,000,000.00
Resources,	9,300,000.00

SECURITY AND SERVICE.

Fall Hats

Clever combinations in suitable shapes for men of every age.
The De Luxe Derby--the aristocrat of all headgear.

Gans-Rady Company

TO DRIVE ALL BEGGARS FROM RICHMOND STREETS

Ordinance, Long Winked at by Police, Will Be Rigidly Enforced Beginning To-Day.

MAJOR CHRISTIAN PROTESTS Alderman Says That If Authorities Do Not Carry Out Law, He Will Swear Out Warrants for Arrests of Mendicants.

Hereafter in the streets of Richmond there will no longer be heard the practical and inhuman cry of the needy mendicant. Orders will be issued to the Police Department to-day to have every mendicant removed from the street, and to be forbidden ever to return to their accustomed stands of refuge.

Major L. T. Christian, one of the new members of Board of Aldermen, called at Police Headquarters yesterday afternoon and informed the authorities that he would make it his business to see that the ordinance now existent against mendicancy and professional begging be enforced through the proper channels, or that he would himself swear out warrants against all violations. He said that he had promised his constituency, before election, that he would see that the vagrancy law was enforced, and it was in no uncertain terms that he informed the police officials that he would keep his pledge. REGARD HELD FOR SOME.

Mendicancy, in its restricted degree, has been permitted and winked at by the Police Department in deference to protests against the enforcement lodged by men and women of social and professional prominence in Richmond. regard was had by the protestants for "Hello Bill," a crippled woman who from a wheeled chair sells pencils and shoelaces to those who are kind enough to buy, and so far as these special products of misery and misfortune were concerned, the ordinance was allowed to lapse, and there was no one to make complaint against them.

But the police would not permit outsiders to make Richmond a haven of refuge, and it was only yesterday that a professional beggar from a Northern city called at Police Headquarters and requested that a permit be granted him to ask alms on the street.

"We don't grant such permits," he was informed, "and we advise you to go at once, under pain of being arrested." The man waited not upon the order of his going, but immediately went.

Well, there are about a dozen half-crazed and blind men who, the police pass by without molestation. They have kept to their self-assigned positions so long that they are regarded almost as landmarks, and it is seldom that they are disturbed.

A meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions was held at Hanover Avenue Christian Church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when various plans of the board were discussed and work for the ensuing year was planned. Speeches were made by women prominent in mission work in several churches of different denomination.

REMOVE GRADE CROSSING

Norfolk and Western Railway Agrees to Spend $25,000 on Project.

The dangerous crossing on the Clinch Valley Division of the Norfolk and Western Railway, at Graham, against which citizens of the town and county complained, will probably be removed.

The crossing has long been regarded as a menace to life and property, and the State Corporation Commission has been endeavoring to remedy conditions there. Judge William F. Rhea, of the commission, returned to the city yesterday morning, after a hearing at which he had given the citizens, county authorities and railroad representatives at a hearing the opportunity to be heard.

At the conference a compromise was reached satisfactory to all parties concerned. The Norfolk and Western agreed to commence work immediately on an undergrade crossing and to spend $20,000. The town of Graham agreed to supplement the expenditure by contributing toward improvements the sum of $1,000, making the total cost of the improvements to be made $21,000.

Dog Owners to Court

Police ordered owners of dogs on charges of failing to secure licenses. Most of the cases were returned against dog owners exhibited their recently purchased tags for the present year. They were reprimanded by Justice Crutchfield for failure to secure the license in February, as is required by law.

Heard from Express Company.
The State Corporation Commission yesterday began hearing from representatives of the express companies doing business in Virginia. The hearing preliminary to an order that will require conformity with the schedule of express charges fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, if it is found that there is discrepancy in the rates.

Now Vote For Yourself

Face the Issue and decide to vote for prosperity by starting a savings account now.

Taking a pledge not to do a certain thing is all right—but it's a whole lot better to sign the "pledge" to do something, viz: to deposit a certain sum each pay-day TO YOUR CREDIT.

We devised the "pledge" plan for the wage-earner and salaried man who wants to put system into his saving.

Why not drop in and let us tell you more?

John M. Adams
CASHIER

MERCHANTS NATIONAL BANK

ALLEGED VIOLATIONS AT SEVEN PINES PRECINCT

Registrar and Two Citizens Arrested by County Police and Will Be Tried Saturday.

COMMUNITY MUCH AGITATED
F. F. Hess, Charged With Cursing
Officer, and A. C. Powers and
W. Taylor Accused of Having Liquor at Polling Place.

Charged with violations of the law in the election at the Seven Pines voting precinct on Tuesday morning, A. C. Powers, J. W. Taylor and F. F. Hess will each be given a hearing on Saturday morning before Magistrate Ir. Watson. Hess, who was registrar at the election, is charged with cursing and abusing County Officer T. Johnson, while in discharge of his duty, while Taylor and Powers are charged with violating that section of the state which makes it unlawful for an person to sell or give away any intoxicating liquors in any district where an election is being held.

It is charged that whiskey was stored in a building near the polling place, and that several persons about the place were drinking and creating considerable disturbance while the election was in progress.

FROM STOUT TO DWELLIN
Johnson stated last night that he had considerable trouble Tuesday at the Seven Pines polling place, when he attempted to keep the crowds at a lawful distance from the ballot box. He charged that he was given little assistance when he tried to enforce the law. The polling place was first located in the grocery store, but later was moved to a dwelling house nearby, when Officer Johnson protested that the store was by no means a suitable place in which to hold an election.

Powers and Taylor are charged with the use of intimidation about the polling place. The three men were arrested by County Officer Hardie. Each of them protested that they were innocent of the charges preferred against them, it is understood.

Residents of the Seven Pines community are considerably agitated over the occurrence. The three men are present citizens of the neighborhood. It is predicted that a large crowd will hear the cases when they come up for trial.

Witness Has Gone.
Robert Hicks, the sailor of the Battleship Missouri, who was expected to be a witness against Hugh McGuire, being liquor to Hicks, who is said to be a minor, has left Portsmouth with his family, according to a report received yesterday. A summons was issued for Hicks when he failed to appear at the date of the hearing, and the above information resulted. The case against McGuire was again continued yesterday.

Hotel Chef Is Held.
The case against Max Cramer, chef of the Jefferson Hotel who was arrested by Detective-Sergeants Kregel and Atkinson as a fugitive from justice in New York State, was postponed until Friday morning. The hearing was held until the hearing, but that until there was an officer here with the necessary papers that time he would be released from custody.

THE SAVINGS BANK OF RICHMOND

117 E. MAIN ST.

Money kept at home is easily lost, but the money in the Savings Bank is safe, and earns interest for you besides.

FEDERAL-RESERVE-SYSTEM
POSTAL-SAVINGS-DEPOSITORY